False Affection, False Creation

Diary of Dreams

Vicious words and false belief Chains around my wrists A sad sensation The craving for life is gone Intoxicate me in the draught of life A yelling laugh decays my dream A laugh to fear my deed

A false affection, a false creation

Suspicious eyes enslaved within Imprisoned - shame and guilt But still a child Confessing all my sins Elaborated, but still out of reach My hands still shiver My eyes don't move A deed you can't neglect
