

The Game

Diary of Dreams

In the blink of an eye
when you fail to move
You face the pain within Adrenaline will push you on

Have you seen my face before?
Have you dreamt of me?
Will you close your cloudy eyes?
Tell me now, tell me what you see

You betray what you can't defeat
My war against the end of time
This game is out of reach
In many ways you're so much like me

Do you feel the clouds moving into you?
Does it make much sense to deny what your eyes can see
