

Numb

Didirri

I've been moving so fast and I know it can't last
I can't think let alone desire
All in my head and only pretend
It's time I should sit down and listen

Making a tune for those who won't hear
I'm running, running with all that I can
I pick my coat and shake it all off
What do they know if I am pretending

Cause I'm singing of love
And of heaven above
While I'm thinking of you in the ground
Singing of love
And it's all just because
I feel nothing
I feel nothing

You were moving so slow, I couldn't ask you to go
You were precious just not to me
You don't know who I am, there aren't many who can
That's just me, it's not some self perception

But you will move on
Thinking you've been spat upon
And I'll still be here
Singing my objection

Cause I'm singing of love
And of heaven above
While I'm thinking of you in the ground
Singing of love
And it's all just because
I feel nothing
I feel nothing
I feel nothing
I feel nothing
