

Where Have All The Boot Boys Gone?

Die Toten Hosen

Yeah

Wearing boots and short hair cuts
We will kick you in the gut
But no luck they've all grown up
They drink tea in a cup
Some get married and settle down
Others they leave for a foreign town
Fighting gangs every night
We use sticks hit 'em in the Kite

Where have all the boot boys gone?
Hammy, Jacko, Boots and John
Where have all the boot boys gone?
It looks like I'm the only one
The one

Friday night we go to a dance hall
Battering stuff we don't have a ball
We don't know what we've done
We go see United coz we're having fun
We get released on 50 quid bail
But I know I'll end up in jail
I was a leader, I was so proud
I hung with a gang, what a fucking crowd

Where have all the boot boys gone?
Hammy, Jacko, Boots and John
Where have all the boot boys gone?
It looks like I'm the only one
The one

Now it's been twenty years or more
And I'm a skin don't know what for
I don't know what I am
I don't give or see a damn
I must stop this M.O.D
I'm gonna stop, I try to be me
I'm gonna listen, I'm gonna try
I'm gonna move or fucking die

Where have all the boot boys gone?
Hammy, Jacko, Boots and John
Where have all the boot boys gone?
It looks like I'm the only one
The one

C'mon
Do ya wanna scrap?
Well you're better fucking get ready then

Where have all the boot boys gone?
Where have all the boot boys gone?
Where have all the boot boys gone?
Where have all the boot boys gone?
