

Standing In The Sun

Dierks Bentley

If heartbreak is a hurricane
Tearing trouble through my chest
And hard days are a light rain
Coming down around my head
If worries are a snowstorm
Piling up a couple feet at a time
Then baby you're the one thing
That keeps the blue up in my sky

Yeah loving you is standing in the sun
Holding you's a heat wave burning me up
Ain't no way I'll ever get enough
It's just one kiss, one look, one touch
That noise dies down and life slows up
This world can be dark and wild and damn cold but
Yeah loving you is standing in the sun
Standing in the sun

There's moments in the morning
Your eyes half open and glowing Like reflections off the ocean and
If I've got problems girl, well
I don't notice
No, you don't even know it but

Loving you is standing in the sun
Holding you's a heat wave burning me up
Ain't no way I'll ever get enough
It's just one kiss, one look, one touch
That noise dies down and life slows up
That world can be dark and wild and damn cold but
Loving you is standing in the sun
Standing in the sun

And I ain't ever felt nothing like it
Keep lighting me up, keep lighting me up

Cause loving you is standing in the sun
Holding you's a heat wave burning me up
Ain't no way I'll ever get enough
It's just one kiss, one look, one touch
That noise dies down and life slows up
That world can be dark and wild and damn cold but
Loving you is standing in the sun
I'm standing in the sun
