I've been, feeling like a slacker
You say I've a lack of, something like motivation
I just, wake up every morning
Scratch my eyes and yawning, waiting for some inspiration

Feel it pushing down on me
Feel it pushing down on me

But late at night you stand there dark and in my door
Just like a shitty rom com flick from nineteen ninety-four
And I'm not like anybody else, not like anyone
Just like everyone

I've been, acting like a pre-teen
Really I'm a has been, got me feeling so deflated
I just, wanna have a good dream
One where I'm flying, wake up feeling so elated

Feel it pushing down on me
Feel it pushing down on me

But late at night you stand there dark and in my door
Just like a shitty rom com flick from nineteen ninety-four
And I'm not like anybody else
Not like anybody else
Not like anybody else
And I'm not like anybody else, not like anyone
Just like everyone

Feel it pushing down on me
Feel it pushing down on me

But late at night you stand there dark and in my door
Just like a shitty rom com flick from nineteen ninety-four
And I'm not like anybody else
Not like anybody else
Not like anybody else
No I'm not like anybody else, not like anyone
Just like everyone

Anyone
