

Last Shower

Diesel

All that you are and all you're not
Is all that I'm needing now
I'll take it all anytime
It's all that I'm needing
Just say it's not true
And I'll believe
'Cause that's all that I'm needing

So you've thrown away the hours
We can forget about the days gone by
Did I come down in the last shower
Cause if I did then let it rain
I'll be washed up at your door again

Watching the sun going down
Was only a feeling
Now that's its set and all is dark
But it's only a feeling
There's light in your eyes
That's no surprise
But it's only a feeling

So you've thrown away the hours
We can forget about the days gone by
Did I come down in the last shower
Cause if I did then let it rain
I'll be washed up at your door again
