

Broken Body

Diet Cig

If my body's broken
Does that mean that
I'm broken too?
Call me I'll come over
But I know I won't
Hear from you

I can't even walk
One fucking block
From my house
I'm missing all the things
That made me feel alive
I wanna die
I've been cooped up inside
I can't remember the last time
I felt good inside my head

If my body's broken
Does that mean that
I'm broken too?
Call me I'll come over
But I know I won't
Hear from you

I'm saying cruel things
Every day to myself
Things I would never
Think to say to someone else
Why can't I be on my own team
I wanna scream
I can't remember the last time
I felt good inside my head

I'm still all the people
I've ever been
Can you believe me
No I'll say it again

I'm still all the people
I've ever been
Can you believe me
No I'll say it again

If my body's broken
Does that mean that
I'm broken too?
Call me I'll come over
But I know I won't
Hear from you

I won't hear from you
(I'm still all the people
I've ever been)

I won't hear from you
(I'm still all the people
I've ever been)

I won't hear from you
(I'm still all the people
I've ever been)

I won't hear from you
(I'm still all the people
I've ever been)

I won't hear from you
(I'm still all the people
I've ever been)

I won't hear from you
(I'm still all the people
I've ever been)
