

Alone Tonight

Digital Daggers

I'll tell you my secrets
I'll tell you my lies
I'll spin it round baby
To bring you inside
Come play with my demons
Till they're satisfied
I need you to come to my rescue
To tell me the sun's gonna rise

'Cause oh what a mess I'm in
The levels of hell I've been
Tell me you'll stay
To chase all the memories away

I'll do anything
To make things right
'Cause I don't wanna be
Alone tonight

The things that I'm seeing
When I close my eyes
The visions aren't leaving
They know where I hide
I'm begging for mercy
I'll barter my life
If you could come back to my rescue
I promise that it's the last time

'Cause look what a mess I'm in
'Cause I got a taste for it
Tell me you'll stay
To chase all them fuckers away

I'll do anything
To make things right
'Cause I don't wanna be
Alone tonight

Heart beating fast like a quick little S.O.S.
Tell me you heard it and you can come handle this
Here I am drowning in chemical kisses
I'm starting to think that I burned all my bridges
I think that I flirted too hard with disaster
I took all the devils and made them my masters
Oh lover I'm drowning in chemical kisses
I'm calling to you because I need a witness

So I'll do anything
To make things right
'Cause I don't wanna be
Alone tonight

I'll do anything
To make things right
