Spark

Digital Daggers

There's a weight in my heart,
Could you be my alchemist?
Heavy metals in the dark,
Could you make some sense of this?

There's a weight on my soul,
Aching for a golden kiss,
With a love I can't control,
With a love I can't resist.

I need a quick fix,
I don't want to feel this,
Come into my arms and make everything alright.

Chase you deep into the unknown,
In my dark, in my dark, you're the spark.

There's a hollow in my chest,
Where the pride is striping,
All I'm trying to forget,
Wish I would reside again.

There's a weight on my soul,
I can feel it sinking in,
It's a love I cannot hold,
It's a love I cannot win.

I need a quick fix,
Tell me you can cure this,
Come into my arms and make everything alright.

Chase you deep into the unknown,
In my dark, in my dark, you're the spark.
Chase you deep into the unknown,
In my dark, in my dark, you're the spark.
(You're the spark)

Undercover,
You're like no other.
Come light my way now,
Don't fight, don't stray.

Chase you deep into the unknown...

Chase you deep into the unknown,
In my dark, in my dark, you're the spark.
Chase you deep into the unknown,
In my dark, in my dark, you're the spark.
