

This heart-pounding day has finally arrived
All my living footfalls sigh like the night
Outside the war between illusion and truth
I found wisdom lain among putrid fruit of Desperation, cold wild gift of youth
Urgent and dead-eyed

Hate the God
I don't believe in
Heaven's just a part of hell
Hate the one
Who wouldn't save us
Shikata ga nai

In the blue mist death has finally closed in
All my gasping words at war with the wind
Worshipping the fear of hell left me lost
I've found something for us, souls who have crossed
Charon's torrent cold spiked black with frost
Ashen and dead-eyed

Hate the God
I don't believe in
Heaven's just a part of hell
Hate the one
Who wouldn't save us
Shikata ga nai

Nothing can be done
I'm no one

He's my blood
Reflected in mud
Leave my body
Among the poppies
I'm nailed to your flaws
You were my God
