

Horsehead

DIIV

I've seen
The middle of five foot
Airtight walls and

I've told
The setting sun a joke
He laughed his head right off'

Horsehead
It's never quite enough
I wanna breathe in
And never breathe back out
Horsehead
I'm never quite enough
I wanna breathe in
And never breathe back out

I sat
In a slump so my shadow
Sat slumped too

Then I laid among the
Rocks and stones
Fuck it all

Horsehead
It's never quite enough
I wanna breathe in
And never breathe back out
Horsehead
I'm never quite enough
I wanna breathe in
And never breathe back out

Wake up, throw it all away,
If nothing's changed, nothing changes
Wake up, throw it all away,
Everything is nothing anyway

We're each the rotten squall
At the center of it all
