

I'm struggling with my faith
Raved and been insane
My life got away from me
You ask me where I've been
And I say
I'm not afraid
I've lived through pain
I'm learning to see through Everything

We were lost
Now we have something
They own our lives
And harvest our suffering
Turn from the light
Cycle is karmic
I want to be nothing

Just say
I'm not afraid
I love my pain
I know we can leave this
Prison
