Baby, can't explain the reason meant for it
I guess maybe, thought I was finally finding something real
Never thought I'd be the one fucking up something
Thinking of something that I need
Never thought I'd be one to fix what ain't broken
When the only thing broken there was me

But if take a million years to bring it back
I'll do what I have to do
Oh, if it'll take a million years
To bring it back
I'll do what I have to do
Oooh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh
Oooh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh

Do you remember
The time we used to spend?
Oh baby I can't let it go
I can't let go
Oh do you remember
When we were friends?
Oh baby I won't let it go
But if you give me a chance
You'll know I'm meant for you
Oh, oh, oh, oh, oh
Oooh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh

But if it take a million years
To bring it back
I'll do what I have to do
Oh, if it take a million years
To bring it back
I'll do what I have to do

Do you remember
The time we used to spend?
Oh baby I can't let it go
I can't let go
Oh do you remember
When we were friends?
Oh baby I won't let it go
But if you give me a chance
You'll know I'm meant for you
Oh, oh, oh, oh, oh
