

Did You See It?

Dijon

I said "okay well lean against the headrest
You could use more rest"
And I said "I think the caps kicking in
I saw some crazy flickering over here"

So I whistled for the doctor come
And I shivered and went dark all at once
Was that the cap kicking in?
Then I asked you again

"Did you see it?
Pretty lights drifting
And Pretty lights drift out
Some strange shifts sideways
Over and about"
