

Dream About Being A Dog

Dijon

I had a dream, you were holding me, I was on fire
It burned us clean, you became a million points of light

It's only, pull me up
Pull me up slowly
Pull me up
Pull me up slowly
Pull me up
Pull me up slowly, and out

And when you breathe, you become a wind around a lake
In circles running, tangled up inside of the bed

And I hope it pull me up
Pull me up slowly
Pull me up
Pull me up slowly
Pull me up
Pull me up slowly, and out
Just pull me up
Pull me up slowly
Pull me up
Pull me up slowly
Pull me up
Pull me up slowly, and out

And we were both just
Ripples on a body of an ocean
Headlights burning in the open
Pull me up and waitin' night
And we were both just
Ripples on a body of an ocean
Headlights burning in the open
Pull me up and wait a night
And we were both just
Ripples on a body of an ocean
Headlights burning in the open
Pull me up and wait a night
And we were both just
Ripples on a body of an ocean
Headlights burning in the open
Pull me up and wait a night
