

Drunk

Dijon

Oh baby
I'm lonely, and I'm fucked up by myself
Could you come here?
Well, I'm wasting and I'm anxious
I'm fading from myself
Could you come here?
And say you'll stay the night

'Cause it's been a while
Since I've seen you smilin' (Here, here)
And yeah, you know it's been a while (Here)
Since I've seen you, since I've seen you smilin' (Smilin', smilin')

Well, oh baby, could you come down?
I think I'm freaking out and I'm drunk
And I don't think I can beat it
I'm paralyzed, I'm terrified of bein' alone
When you said...

'Cause it's been a while
Since I thought about the good things
All the bright light things
All the good times that we had
Oh it's been a while being (Here)
Since I've made you, since I've made you smile
And I'm chained to myself
Tell me why I can't help myself
I hurt myself, I lost myself
I'm lost

I can't help myself
I hurt myself
I lost myself
I'm lost
