

Honest

Dijon

When the summer came, it all changed baby
I wish it never ended, this was something new to me
Maybe I gotta be honest, you were everything that I wanted

Now I see you again, I can't pretend baby
I know those days are gone, but did I miss an opportunity?
Cause baby you gotta be honest
Maybe we could've been something
All I wanted was you

Now I wouldn't wanna change the past
And I know you've got your thing, and I don't wanna complicate it
I just wonder if I had a chance, maybe if I would've asked
Cause baby I gotta be honest
Baby I gotta be honest
Now I wouldn't wanna change the past
And I know you've got your thing, and I don't wanna complicate it
I just wonder if I had a chance, maybe if I would've asked
Cause baby I gotta be honest
Baby I gotta be honest

Tell me what you're thinking of
Is it falling in love? Cause I'm falling in love with you all over again
Tell me what you're thinking of
Is it falling in love? Cause I'm falling in love with you all over again
