

I can't believe that you gon' up and leave
I can't believe you gon' walk out on me
So next time when you callin' I'm gon' push ignore on my phone
I don't even wanna hear your side of things, girl, I'm gone
And if you believe that we can patch it up, you're wrong
I should've crept with your homegirl... or your sister
So next time when you're callin' I'ma hang up on you like that I just wish that I could, girl just know I'd take it all back

"Like what's your name? Can I call yah?"
I wish I never said that
All the things I did for yah
I wish I could forget that
And all of the time I wasted on you
"What's your name? Can I call yah?"
I wish I never said that
All the things I did for yah
I wish I could forget that
And all of the time I wasted on you
