

Thug Meditation

Dijon

Said that you were wasting time
Said that you were leaving
You left the water running

I tried to make you change your mind
But my body's frozen
And the tub is overflowing
In the hotel

You say nobody perfect
But you always let me down
I can feel you always around me
I stay in silent drown

I know somethings will get broken
I can't seem to let it go
I know somethings will get broken
I can't seem to let it go
