

Red, White, Camo And Blue

Dillon Carmichael

Antlers sitting in the corner on the floor
Ain't had no time to hang 'em
The wolf's been hanging round our front door
Dressed up like a banker
Corn ain't growing no money no more
But we still plan on planting
And loading up a Friday night poor boy Ford
And standing up for the anthem

Watching our home town team
Waiting to turn eighteen

It's work till it's done, sleep when you can
Look 'em in the eye when you shake a man's hand
We come by it honest in the promise land
Loving Aunt Bee and Uncle Sam
It's chicken when it is, feathers when it ain't
Ten in the tank, twenty in the plate
We're head to toe, porch to pole
T-shirts and tattoos
Red, white, camo, and blue

Way out here we got more deer
And cows than we got people
Our sky line is a water tower
A silo and a steeple
Our high crime is a farmer's fined
For running that red dye diesel
Our good time is Grandpa's shine
It wouldn't taste right if it was legal

We're just cut and dried, tried and true
Red, white, camo, and blue

It's work till it's done, sleep when you can
Look 'em in the eye when you shake a man's hand
We come by it honest in the promise land
Loving Aunt Bee and Uncle Sam
It's chicken when it is, feathers when it ain't
Ten in the tank, twenty in the plate
We're head to toe, porch to pole
T-shirts and tattoos
Red, white, camo, and blue
