

Colors

Dillon Francis

Lonely shades of blue
Painted on the walls of this room
I don't know who to trust
But that ain't what I need from love

I'm steppin' out
I wanna be free to love myself
I'm like a flower in bloom
I'm feelin' it now
I finally see myself in colors
That they weren't even in two

One foot in front of the other
I'm not gonna think twice
No, no
One foot in front of the other
I'm not breakin' my stride
No, no

Lonely shades of blue
Painted on the walls of this room
I don't know who to trust (Ah)
But that ain't what I need from love

I'm steppin' out
I wanna be free to love myself
I'm like a flower in bloom
I'm feelin' it now
I finally see myself in colors
That they weren't even in two

Yeah, I know, yeah, I know
That you could never love me like that
Love me like that
Yeah, I know, yeah, I know
That you could never love me like that
Love me like that
Yeah, I know, yeah, I know
That you could never love me like that
Love me like that
Yeah, I know, yeah, I know
That you could never love me like that
