

Hate Me

Dillon Francis

Why don't we go back to the beginning
You say that you love me
I feel like you hate me

Don't wanna meet your friends
Don't wanna play pretend
Cause I don't fit in
No I don't fit in
My patience wearing thin
I know you're not the same
I'm tired of the games
That I could never win

Remember when you said
This all was in my head
And this was just a phase
Still waiting
Turn a love into a war
Now it's all worse than before
And I can't take anymore

Why don't we go back to the beginning
You say that you love me
I feel like you hate me
You're trying to change me
You're trying to change me
You say that you love me
I feel like you hate me

So lets start from the top
You wanted what I'm not
It's funny how it ended
Am I better off

This love is a car crash
Stuck on the tarmac
You said that you'd call
But I guess you forgot

Remember when you said
This all was in my head
And this was just a phase
Still waiting
Turn a love into a war
Now it's all worse than before
And I can't take anymore

Why don't we go back to the beginning
You say that you love me
I feel like you hate me
You're trying to change me
You're trying to change me
You say that you love me
I feel like you hate me

(I feel like you hate me...)

Why don't we go back to the beginning
You say that you love me
I feel like you hate me
You're trying to change me
You say that you love me
I feel like you hate me

I feel like you hate me
