

The Undying Need To Scream

Dillon

Don't know, what to say, but it must get out won't you stick around, as I try to think out loud

I know that you can handle the truth inside of me, the undying need to scream

Tried it with laughter with anxiety
I've tried it with you
Now, I must scream

Aaaah...

This must end here before I lose my voice over you

This must end here
before I lose myself in you
