

Mistakes

Dimas Bilan

Yesterday, you came to me
And told me you have found another love (love love)
At first, it was hard to see
That I could be the reason because,
I gave my all to you
My heart to you
But I guess it wasn't enough,
To make you, hear me out
Say what loves about
We're worth it
And nobody's perfect

Cause everybody makes mistakes
It's something everybody goes through
I'm not afraid to say,
I'm sorry
That's something other people don't do
And I will take the blame,
For everything
Baby you can put it on me
Cause everybody makes mistakes
What can I do to make you see?

I'm only human
I'm only human

I know I said it, a thousand times
But sorry doesn't cut it
A lie will make it right
I know my chances are slim to none
But can't we give it one last try,
I gave my all to you
My heart to you
But I guess it wasn't enough
To make you, hear me out
Say what loves about
We're worth it
And nobody's perfect

Cause everybody makes mistakes
It's something everybody goes through
I'm not afraid to say,
I'm sorry
That's something other people don't do
And I will take the blame,
For everything
Baby you can put it on me
Cause everybody makes mistakes
What can I do to make you see?

I'm only human
(I'm only human)
(human)
(human)

Cause everybody makes mistakes

It's something everybody goes through
I'm not afraid to say,
I'm sorry
It's something other people don't do
And I will take the blame,
For everything
Baby you can put it on me
Cause everybody makes mistakes
What can I do to make you see?

I'm only human
