

Forgotten... But Not Forgiven

Dimension Zero

I saw it moving in the darkened sky
The gods arriving through the clouds
Forgotten but not forgiven
Remembering all their outrage
I'll not forget when I am dead

They struck the ground I stood on
Took away every soul
Undressed my mind and destroyed my shadow
I am doomed to walk towards the end

Forgotten but not forgiven
Remembering all their outrage
I'll not forget when I am dead
I'll not forgive when I arise
I'll not forget when I am dead

In a state of mind
That can not be felt
It can not be seen
It's like an unconscious terror
A few got out
Out of the frames
But the rest were burnt in flames

In a state of mind
That can not be felt
It can not be seen
It's like an unconscious terror
Eye to eye with a lost soul
Armed with the past powers
All is real, the old forces they feel
Dead-silent moving through my limbs
Icecold stain and eyes met my face
This is the fear in this thrilling maze
