

Deeper Love

Dimitri Vegas & Like Mike

Even though you're miles away
Your touch surrounds me
I feel I haven't nothing else to wait for Nothing but to see you smiling

Like a star falling from the sky
You bursted into my life
Just like a sparrow in the spring(?)
I was flying high .. me

Everything that I was looking at
Yeah, it looks like years back (?)
I thought that had really .. my heart
And nothing can be left (?)
So let's pretend

Doesn't matter if you're near or far
Cuz some day I will find you
With no excuses on the way
I'll be waiting
I'll be waiting just to touch you
