

All 2 U

Dinah Jane

I listen, listen, sit and keep on wishing
Boy, you've done to me wrong before
But this ain't college, that way you know
Ooh, you are my everything
I miss what we used to be, oh baby, now it's a mystery

I gotta back up, back up
'Cause I know you'll stay, running game
Why you need to stop?
I let you start again
And this break up to make up
But to you, it's make up to break up
I gave my all to you
I gave my all to you

Why do we make up to break up?
Why do we make up to break up?
Why do we make up to break up?
I gave my all to you, I gave my all to you

Shawty, I'm sorry
But you ain't pickin' up, baby, just call me
Callin' you, tryna get to you
Come to see, shawty, I miss the scent of you

Come with me, bae
Can we just work it out?
Can you still hold me down?
Shawty, you know you're worth it
And I can tell, you're really hurtin'
Baby, girl, was it worth it?
Now you all up gettin' nervous

I gotta back up, back up
'Cause I know you'll stay, running game
Why you need to stop?
I let you start again
And this break up to make up
But to you, it's make up to break up
I gave my all to you
I gave my all to you

Why do we make up to break up?
Why do we make up to break up?
Why do we make up to break up?
I gave my all to you, I gave my all to you
I gave my all to you
I gave my all to you
I gave my all to you
