

Pond Song

Dinosaur Jr.

Pond mistress, yet you're undecided
I sprinkle looks to let you know
Hey there's a wave, Come on let's ride it
Jump on that oar, we'll have to row

Now, while your eyes run back
Your memories attack
I'll give it my last crack
The dreams keep me awake
Feelings seem hard to shake
Same way I always flake

Dripping off, you come to meet me
Break off a piece, to let you know
Let it bubble all around you
Yeah there's a love
But it won't show

And while your eyes run back
Your memories attack
I'll give it one last crack
The dreams keep me awake
Feelings seem hard to shake
Same way I always flake

Need a way to keep it simple
All the times I bailed, you float go to reach and then you wrinkle
I turned it down
Right down your throat
