

Cross My Heart

Dinosaur Pile-Up

I'm sick of always feeling like I just don't belong
Then I get to thinking [?]
Like a needle in haystack waiting, I want to move [?]
Try to find my way back, so far away from home

On and on, I've been here before
Cross my heart and hope to die

For you, yeah
For you, yeah

Staring at the ceiling thinking, "Am I alone?"
Baby I've been thinking that I'm the only one
You're a pretty little creature, the size of a teardrop
Pretty little rainstorm sent from the sky above

On and on, I'll tell you once more
Cross my heart and hope to die

For you, yeah
For you, yeah
For you, yeah
For you, yeah

Cross my heart and hope to die
For you, yeah
For you, yeah
For you, yeah
For you, yeah
(Cross my heart and hope to die)
For you, yeah
(Cross my heart and hope to die)
For you, yeah
(Cross my heart and hope to die)
For you, yeah
(Cross my heart and hope to die)
For you, yeah
