

Might as Well

Dinosaur Pile-Up

If all's been said and done
Then where do I belong?
Confessed, I'm scared but no one cares
Am I the only one?

If I was faded once
It had no consequences
Whatever's left is yours I guess
You can't please everyone

Take it all
I don't need it anymore
The rise and fall
Is still repeating like before
I broke the spell
So I'll be leaving, might as well
Remember me

If I'm the lucky one
Then where did I go wrong?
I heard you say "There'll come a day"
When all you had is gone

If I'm your favorite son
Then who did I become
I'll stay the same
I'll never change
I'll die as I was born

Take it all
I don't need it anymore
The rise and fall
Is still repeating like before
I broke the spell
So I'll be leaving, might as well
Remember me

Take it all
I don't need it anymore
The rise and fall
Is still repeating like before
I broke the spell
So I'll be leaving, might as well
Remember me

Take it all
I don't need you anymore
The rise and fall
Is still repeating like before
I broke the spell
So I'll be leaving, might as well
Remember me
