

Never That Together

Dinosaur Pile-Up

How I love you, only you
Tears me apart me apart
That we're just never, ever that together
So what.. only you
When I'm at home, I'm at home
Which isn't much, anymore
My heart is heavy, with all the stuff you tell me
So what.. only you

I'm, I'm on time, for nothing in particular
I'm alright, but only if you fix me first
You're so kind, hurt me when I want I swear
On my life, you could visit if I was somewhere
But only you

That we're just never, ever that together
So what.. only you
My pretty cogs, turn around
My worried thoughts, churn and my
My mother tells me, I'll waste away my life
Tryna get.. over you

I'm, I'm on time, for nothing in particular
I'm alright, but only if you fix me first
You're so kind, hurt me when I want I swear
On my life, you could visit if I was somewhere
But only you

I have only eyes for you
I have only eyes for you
I have only eyes for you
I have only eyes for you

I'm, I'm on time, for nothing in particular
I'm alright, but only if you fix me first
You're so kind, hurt me when I want I swear
On my life, you could visit if I was somewhere
But only you
