

Start Again

Dinosaur Pile-Up

Memories turnin' into cemeteries in your head
Nothing matters anyway, does it?
I don't know 'cause lately I've been losing my mind
Maybe I've been dreamin and I'm wasting my time
Maybe I'm a dead end road, what-eve-r

Worse or better, stay together
On and on, it's hard to start again
Start again, start again
I don't wanna start again, start again

Mysteries tearin', you were buying histories, changin'
Always and forever was a breath
I don't know 'cause lately I've been losing my mind
Maybe I've been dreamin and I'm wasting my time
Maybe I'm a dead end road, what-eve-r

Worse or better, stay together
On and on it's hard to start again
Start again, start again
I don't wanna start again, start again

Worthless gesture, priceless treasure
Wait forever, but can't live this
It's a battering cans, and the worse it hurts
And on and on, it's hard to start again
Start again, start again

Hey, start again, start again
I don't wanna start again, start again
I don't wanna start again, start again
I don't wanna
