

Hymn To Him

Dion

Do you walk in the shadows?
Are your dreams swept with fear?
Does your heart fill with sadness
With the night drawing near?
Do you yearn for the moment
When you'll be safe and warm?
Do you search for the shelter
From life's oncoming storm?

Come to Him through the darkness
Come to Him through the rain
Walk with him from misfortune
Walk with him from the pain
He's the light of salvation
He's the head never bowed
He's the first step of wisdom
He's the sun through the clouds
Walk with him

If the winds of disaster
Have blown through your night
And the dreams you have cherished
Can't begin to take the fight
Take his hand through the sunlight
Lift your head high above
Let your heart flow forever
With the warmth of his love

Come to Him through the darkness
Come to Him through the rain
Walk with him from misfortune
Walk with him from the pain
He's the light of salvation
He's the head never bowed
He's the first step of wisdom
He's the sun through the clouds
Walk with him

Blend your life with his blessing
Drink from the wine tomorrow
Yesterday must be banished
With the seed of your sorrow

Do you walk in the shadows
Are your dreams swept with fears
Does your heart fill with sadness
With the night drawing near
Do you yearn for the moment
When you'll be safe and warm
Do you search for the shelter
From life's oncoming storm

Come to Him through the darkness
Come to Him through the rain
Walk with him from misfortune
Walk with him from the pain
He's the light of salvation

He's the head never bowed
He's the first step of wisdom
He's the sun through the clouds
Walk with him
Walk with him
