

My Mammy

Dion

Mammy, Mammy
Don't you know I'm coming home
Hear me talkin' now a
Mammy, Mammy
Sunshine's east, sunshine's west
But I know where the sunshine's best
Mammy, Mammy
My heart strings are tangled around Mammy
Hear me talking about
I'ma coming
I'm so sorry that I made you wait
I'm a comin'
I just hope and pray I'm not too late
You know I love you mammy
Oh, Mammy
I'd walk a million miles for one of your smiles
My mammy
Let's go
I'm a comin'
Sorry that I made you wait
I'm a comin'
I just hope and pray I'm not too late
You know I love you mammy
Talking about my girl, mammy
I'd walk a million miles for one of your smiles
I'd go to kingdom come for my sugar plum
I'm packing her out today forever to stay
With my mammy, yeah

Open that door
Hello to blackbird blues
And my walking shoes
Hello to home sweet home
And my honeycomb
I plant a big black kiss on that girl that I miss
My mammy
Be right there
