

Spinnin' for 2012

Dionne Bromfield

It-It's spinnin' again
It-It's spinnin' again
It-uuh-uuh spinning again

We go for pain and try to shine in the perfect the moment
We let it burn inside knowing the path is golden
See the strain in our eyes, we're gonna do our best
You and me will give it all until nothing is left We're gonna catch the light and stay alive and feel the love coming from the flame

The world keeps spinning,
Changing the lives of people in it
Nobody knows where it will take us
But we hope it gets better, better, better

We can stand the rain
The clouds, they're all gone
World on my shoulder
Standing so strong
Chase my path with all the clues gone,
Success and I is like a true one
Dropping it out
Or pulling this offload
Negative vibe
We just step forward
Swinging the arrow
We push it forth
Winning's the key
To make us known

The world is spinnin' faster
Day by day gets harder
Oh, I'm a soldier
Fighting till it's over, yeah

Go when the hope is gone
Just keep it strong
And feel the love
Coming from the flame

The world keeps spinning,
Changing the lives of people in it
Nobody knows where it will take us
But we hope it gets better, better, better

One day I know that,
It will get better
Music is healing
I love the feeling
Today I know that,
It will get better
Music is healing
One day all people
Will be all equal
Until that day comes,

I'll just be singing my song

The world keeps spinning,
Nobody knows where it will take us
But we hope it gets better, better, better

The world keeps spinning,
Nobody knows where it will take us
But we hope it gets better, better, better

As the world spins
We'll keep trying
If we hold tight
We'll keep shining
As the world spins
If we hold tight
We'll keep shining
