

Nothing's Impossible

Dionne Warwick

Nothing's impossible if you believe
Nothing can stop you from what you'll achieve (What you'll achieve)
Dreams are forever (Yes they are) Yes they are (Yes they are)
So don't ever question (Don't ever question) who you are (Who you are)

The things that take the longest really take the strongest
You tell me what's worse, a broken heart or broken harness
Hangin', danglin' in the air, clinchin' your belongings
Hoverin' like the 'Colors in the Wind' from Pocahontas
Bro, tell me what's worse, a broken arm or broken armour
The suit that made you Superman is really old pyjamas
Just imagine if Moana had been worried 'bout piranhas
Or if Elsa held the powers back the first time she froze Anna
Let it go 'cause if you hold on any longer you're a goner
I don't mean a ledge, I mean that pseudo-karma you hold onto
You just swing your legs, you wanna break away or break a promise
Now go break a leg and break the bank and make a honest, living

Nothing's impossible if you believe (If you believe)
Nothing can stop you from what you'll achieve (What you'll achieve)
Dreams are forever (Yes they are) Yes they are (Yes they are)
So don't ever question (Don't ever question) who you are (Who you are)

Never look back
Don't dwell on the past
The only thing worse than loss is not showin' up
Never givin' in
You might just be someone's win
You never know if you are their one last chance

Nothing's impossible if you believe (If you believe)
Nothing can stop you from what you'll achieve (What you'll achieve)
Dreams are forever (Yes they are) Yes they are (Yes they are)
So don't ever question (Don't ever question) who you are (Who you are)

Don't ever question who you are (Who you are)
Don't ever question who you are
Don't ever question (Don't ever question) who you are
Don't ever question who you are
