

True at Heart

Dionysus

It's time to fight
As one on the battlefield for every right
It's up to you to change someone's destiny
It's time to prove what you wanna do!

I can see a burning flame
That light up lost gone souls
Somewhere is a spark of life
That leads towards our goal

We're marching for freedom
Stand for one kingdom
Follow the wisdom, all true at heart
Gather all forces, from long distant courses
Stronger then ever, all true at heart

I have a dream
To see all the people of our world be free
We'll live as one, our enemies forces
Will be on the run, the future is here
