Lately I crave your attention
I criticize 24/7
Assume you've got the worst intentions
When really you've been nothing but good

You pull me close every time I try to push you away
You kiss my lips just to show me that you're not gonna leave
You don't give up on me, it don't matter how long it takes
'Cause I know that you're always gon' be there for me

Thank you for your patience
Been so emotional
Your dedication to let me grow
I've been so impatient
But you let me know
You'll been standing in the rain

Waiting for me to flower, flower, flower
Waiting for me to flower, flower, flower
Waiting for me to flower, flower, flower
Waiting for me to flower, flower, flower

You call me out when I've been crazy
You show me how I've been acting lately
And I'm so proud of what you made me
And honestly we're nothing but good

You pull me close every time I try to push you away
You kiss my lips just to show me that you're not gonna leave
You don't give up on me, it don't matter how long it takes
'Cause I know that you're always gon' be there for me

Thank you for your patience
Been so emotional
Your dedication to let me grow
I've been so impatient
But you let me know
You'll been standing in the rain

Waiting for me to flower, flower, flower
Waiting for me to flower, flower, flower
Waiting for me to flower, flower, flower
Waiting for me to flower, flower, flower

Flower, flower, flower
Flower, flower
Flower, flower, flower
Flower, flower
