(Hey soul sister, hope you can find, you can find peace)
(Hey soul brother, hope you can find, you can find peace)

I need my peace of mind (woosah)
I need my peace of mind (woosah)
I gotta stay on the grind (woosah)
But I need my peace of mind (woosah)
Now gimme that woosah
I need me some woosah
Now gimme that woosah
Gimme that gimme that
Gimme that woosah
Woosah when I meditate
Take it easy take a break
Got a lot of distractions but right now I'm okay
I need me some woosah

Now gimme that woosah
Gimme that, gimme that

Time heals almost everything, that's a fact tho
Inhale exhale till your mind travels
Bout to fly and I don't need me a passport
I ain't gonna run away from my past but I'mma just focus on my path
And though I'm motivated to be educated, I ain't playing with your propagand

I don't know why some of y'all hating on a homie with a passion
Never care what they say, I'mma focus only on actions
Makin' a milli with my eyes closed, finding balance being mindful

Realize real lies recognize I gotta be careful

They be scheming, I be chillin' here with my homies but I gotta go now
Yea I'm going to break outside of my comfort zone I'mma step out of the bubble
I'm gonna hustle, making my way out the jungle of my mind
It's a war zone but I'm Rambo on a tye-dye

I know I really really want it
Gimme gimme my peace of mind, I will stop at nothing, I'mma stick with it
Shout out to the homie Dipha he gave me the key to the Pyramid of Chi
I'm learning amazing lesson how to live in sabali
I study forgiving and finding solution
Forgetting my hate and improving my vision now

I'm a top dog on a mission
All about the living in the moment
I ain't gon stress, I'm blessed
Meditate, meditate
