

Look Back

Diplo

Zoning on the road
Not knowin' where to go
But I ain't lookin' back
I ain't going back to that
Looking down on the globe
Outta this world I know
Somehow tryna breathe
Back, baby

And I haven't looked back, uh
Since I made up my mind
To never look behind, no
And I haven't looked back, uh
For a very long time
I don't, I don't see myself looking back for you, man
Reasons why is cause I'm only looking forward, man

Revenge is waiting down the road
I'm steadily moving forward
Even though I don't know where to go
You gotta know that I'm never looking back for ya
Cause you remind me of the struggle
From where I had to come from under
I used to have to use my muscle
Gotta be strong, living this life

Right or wrong
Cause this life that's very real to me
Is relatable to you
Seem like such a difficult task
But to me I was just staying true
True to mine and true to yours
Tryna relieve the pain that we endured
If you don't want relief you're still my bro
You lost but I still have your soul

And I haven't looked back, uh
Since I made up my mind
To never look behind, no
And I haven't looked back
For a very long time
For a very long time, oh
And I haven't looked back, uh
For a very long time
I don't, I don't see myself looking back for you, man
Reasons why is cause I'm only looking forward, man

You know I haven't look back for you lately
You know I haven't look back
