Without You

Diplo

Shame on me, now I have to face my own fear
Pickin' up pieces of my heart
Honestly, I'm just lyin' to myself, yeah
Don't you know it's gettin' hard?

I wake every day and dry these tears I've cried
'Cause everything looks good on you except goodbye

Without you
The ocean has no waves
Without you
The moon won't show its face
The stars don't shine, the sun won't rise
Since you went away
Without you
Without you

Walk with me, oh, my grave is gettin' shallow
With all the echoes of your name
Tragedy, she's a knife inside a shadow
And she's got me in her aim

Emptiness is all that's left of you and I
'Cause everything looks good on you except goodbye

Without you
The ocean has no waves
Without you
The moon won't show its face
The stars don't shine, the sun won't rise
Since you went away
Without you
Without you

Stuck in this eternity of sorrow
I'll just be here waitin' for tomorrow

Without you
The ocean has no waves
Without you
The moon won't show its face
The stars don't shine, the sun won't rise
Since you went away
Without you
Without you

Without you
Without you
