The memories that I can get rid of, one two
It changes each time

For someone it's evil
There's nothing I can do if that's what you assume

If you look down the 13 flight of stairs, the flowers bloom
I change to whose intention?
I didn't run away

Yeah, I'm not doing it for someone else
I'm not taking the path that was handed to me
Now
Not everyone is strong
Isn't that right?
In order to live
What if we could get rid of all of our past

Living alone
Does not breed solitude

To not be needed

Never die
In the dark
Never die
In the heart of
Here is everything
Here is everything
Never die

If you look down the 13 flight of stairs, the flowers bloom
I change to whose intention?

Yeah, I'm not doing it for someone else
I'm not taking the path that was handed to me
Now
Not everyone is strong
Isn't that right?
In order to live
If I got rid of all of my past
Will I be capable of change?
Right now, if there isn't a rewarding future
Please destroy it all
