To the preservation district, follow ahead
Common sense flows alongside dictatorship extensively
Providing that we are human

Conférer En Odeur Du Sang

Life that burns slowly is beautiful
An unspoken death
The awareness of a piercing freedom
God bless you

Pray
The lost and distorted happiness turns into rain

Innocent eyes playing joyfully in the water
Gasmask and death
Now, it's silent

Cold Rain

The love worth throwing away

After the rain clears, I will kill myself from tomorrow
In the dreambox are all my hopes
Good Bye
Just another dull day, forgetting who I am

Smile, even if the end is before your very eyes

Invited to join the aesthetic sky
Let us wave our hands
Life that burns slowly is beautiful
An unspoken death
The awareness of a piercing freedom
God bless you

The lost and distorted happiness turns into rain

More Of Fire Than Blood
