

Midsummer season, the cicadas singing beyond the sliding door
Wearing a yukata with a loosened sash the woman's water is breaking
Her hair in disarray, her face unseen her mouth split in a broad grin
If she paints her lips scarlet can you do it again?

Midwinter season, the butterflies dying everything a snowy landscape
You crawl up out from inside the well the woman laughing loudly

Mind's eye delusion Victimization
Oviduct overdrive Victimization
Ovulation response Victimization
Courtesan interference Victimization
Heartbreak severance Victimization
Chatter abortion Victimization

Let your se* desires bloom let the woman's corpse bloom
Let your desires for pregnancy bloom let next year's spring bloom
Let your own desires bloom let's bloom in Kyoto
