

We Are Alone

Direct Hit!

Now that we're alone, why don't you tell me your name?
I've got a plan to get us out and they won't catch us if you do what I say Well there's a hole in the wall of my cell We're crawling in and going through the sewer pipe before we bo th run like hell

We'll leave the bodies by the water, they're the guards that we kill
And we'll be screaming bloody murder from the top of the hill
But we'll run silently into the car parked for us by the side o f the road

Now that we're alone, why don't you tell me your name?
I know a place we can lay low until we feel like going back to that place
I've got a whole head of things I can claim But I won't lie it's us vs them and if we try, oh no, we can't run away

Because we'll leave the bodies by the water, they're the guards that we kill
And we'll be screaming bloody murder from the top of the hill
But we'll run silently into the car parked for us by the side o
f the road

Now I know that we are alone

Because we'll leave the bodies by the water, they're the guards
that we kill
And we'll be screaming bloody murder from the top of the hill
But we'll run silently into the car parked for us by the side o
f the road

We'll leave the bodies by the water, they're the guards that we
kill We'll leave the bodies by the water, they're the guards that we
kill We'll leave the bodies by the water, they're the guards that we
kill

Now we're alone
Now I know that we are alone
