

Blue of Dreaming

Dirty Projectors

Soon we'll be back at home
You'll tuck snug into bed
The treefrog asleep in the treetop and
The hedgehog asleep in the hedge

All dream of the green of forests
That's the green of being
And the blue of oceans
That's the blue of dreaming

Blue
The blue of dreaming
Blue of dreaming
Dreaming
The blue of dreaming
That's the blue of dreaming

Now the night stretches out
Over the city asleep
The stars all safeguard over heaven, but
The earth is just ours to safekeep

So let's dream of the green of forests
That's the green of being
And the blue of oceans
'Cause that's the blue of dreaming

Blue
The blue of dreaming
The blue of dreaming
Blue
The blue of dreaming
That's the blue of dreaming
