

My Possession

Dirty Projectors

Standing in the rain
Raise up with the day
Giving in to old sensations
You are still the same

I'll give you this
But hold it close
And please remember
The ones you find
Are you inside
Another vessel?

I know I should know better
I'm still the same
I've been holding this forever
Maybe I'm afraid
To let go of my possession
It's time to throw it away

Quiet in the dawn
Whatever is gone
Leaves in place
A great expansion
Now and from now on

I can't give you
The one thing that
I see you missing
You gotta choose
It on your own
Open and willing

I know I should know better
I'm still the same
I've been holding this forever
Maybe I'm afraid
To let go of my possession

I know I should know better
I'm still the same
It's been holding me forever
Maybe I'm afraid
To let go of my possession
It's time to throw it away

Sparks fly
Out of my eyes
My head's spinning
My possession

Spider walk
Down the hall
It flays my skin
My possession
