First light in the morning Shadows start to fall Temptation is calling Coming for us all

Flames are getting higher People come and go Just for a second I was in a world of my own

It's a habit of mine
Sometimes it makes me wonder
Is it passion or crime
It's like a wave that pulls me under

It's a habit of mine
Sometimes it makes me wonder
Is it passion or crime
It's like a wave that pulls me under

Pulls me under

7 o'clock in the morning Somewhere I shouldn't be My heart beats out a warning Don't bite the hand that feeds

Flames are getting higher People come and go Just for a second I was in a world of my own

It's a habit of mine
Sometimes it makes me wonder
Is it passion or crime
It's like a wave that pulls me under

It's a habit of mine
Sometimes it makes me wonder
Is it passion or crime
It's like a wave that pulls me under

Pulls me under Pulls me under

It's like a wave that pulls me under It's a habit of mine
It's like a wave that pulls me under It's a habit of mine

It's like a wave that pulls me under It's a habit of mine
It's like a wave that pulls me under It's a habit of mine
