Nihilistic Overdrive

Disarmonia Mundi

You don't seem to understand The reason for this bitter end You served a cause but the cause is lost As words escape we turn to dust

Surrender fall to the siren's song While our future means nothing at all Recover to stand for the final call Can't you hear me calling? Can't you see me crawling now? Take my hands, ruthless fire Crawling in this solitary dance

Still you fail to comprehend D-Generation overspread With a sullen mind in a tallow corpse I pull the plug and you're fucking gone Nihilistic overdrive No need to reason with a bastard kind The preservation of a thought Eradicate, destroy them all

Surrender fall to the siren's song While our future means nothing at all Recover to stand for the final call Can't you hear me calling? Can't you see me crawling now? Take my hands, ruthless fire Crawling in this solitary dance

Burning all your shallow dreams up Burning all your fucking dreams I'm still looking for a reason Fuck you all, I've got to breathe Nihilistic overdrive, nihilistic overdrive

While the future seems so vain I endeavour the betray The propagation of a sore in a vision I abhor through the ashes Feel the thrill Nothing's wrong nothing's real Termination of us all Living virus We must fall

Surrender fall to the siren's song While our future means nothing at all Recover to stand for the final call Can't you hear me calling? Can't you see me crawling now? Take my hands, ruthless fire Crawling in this solitary dance
